

NEVADA MUSEUMS & HISTORY

Photo, Museum Artifact, Manuscripts & Ephemera Reproduction Information

The Nevada Historical Society (NHS) maintains a diverse collection for the state of Nevada. Collection materials range from photographs, manuscript materials, basketry, artwork, maps, ephemera, diaries, ledgers and gaming materials. For more information, you will need to schedule an appointment with the appropriate Curator.

Publication Request Forms:

In order to use images for any broadcasting and publication use, you will need to fill out the Rights and Reproduction Application to publish pictorial materials form.

Books, Journals and Periodicals and Media: One-time use Publication fees:

$10.00 fee for small local presses with small runs 10,000 and less.

$25.00 fee for national or regional presses with runs from 10,001 – 39,000.

$100.00 fee for use of scans for commercial setting displays, regional advertising.

$200.00 for large press runs: 40,000-75,000 and national & corporate product advertising, major television networks or Hollywood movies.

$300.00 for national advertisements or displays in multiple store locations.

Onsite Television, Network and Documentary Filming fees:

$150.00 fee for two hours is payable before onsite filming begins. Crews will work with a designated staff member when filming on location for access while ensuring the safety and security of the building, exhibits and collections.

Broadcast Usage fees:

$50.00 each is payable upon publication or broadcast for all time and all languages for a single production. Repeat fee for new editions or CD version not released at the same time as the original.

All Media: Package to include advertising and promotion, all languages and all media is $100.00 each, excluding large runs of ink-printed books. Small-budget, independent documentary film-makers may request a discounted all-media release fee, ranging $50 and up.

The usage fee can be waived for nonprofit publishers and news outlets. However, donations are always welcome to help support this service.