Vision

The Stewart Indian School Cultural Center and Museum is dedicated in remembrance of the first Stewart students in 1890, and to all students who have attended the school. The vision of the Cultural Center is to serve as a steward of living American Indian materials and traditions. The museum provides present day and historical information regarding American Indian culture through art, exhibitions, educational programs, and research.

Mission

The mission of the Stewart Indian School Cultural Center and Museum is to truthfully tell the story of Stewart's evolution from a government boarding school to a school designed specifically for American Indian culture. The museum is a place of living heritage and serves as a research facility for Stewart students, staff, faculty, alumni, and the general public.
