FEATURED EXHIBITS

In remembrance of the centennial of the United States helping to win the First World War on November 11, 1918, “Remembering the Great War: One Hundred Years Later,” will continue in the South Gallery. This exhibit features over thirty extraordinary and powerful images taken of the war by the Photographic Section of the French Army. Also on exhibit are other World War I artifacts including patriotic posters and an American Army uniform. A silent documentary on American Troops in France, Pershing’s Crusaders, will be shown during the exhibit in the South Gallery. The exhibit will run until Nov. 2018.

Our Nevada Stories: Objects Found in Time is on display in the North Changing Gallery; view beautiful Nevada opals, see Glenn Lucky’s tricycle, discover a magnificent crazy quilt, examine the first known specimen of the North American Ice Age cheetah, and other artifacts of historic value to people and communities.
